

Auctav National Hunt Sale – 151 Lots Catalogued

The catalogue for the Auctav National Hunt Sale on 19 September is now available online. It was at Auctav that Diamond Carl, winner of the 2025 Grand Steeple-Chase de Paris, changed hands. This year's renewal features 151 lots, including a significant draft from Ecurie Sagara.

Ecurie Sagara Reduction

Ecurie Sagara will offer 23 lots as part of its reduction. Among the highlights is Fée Viviane (56B), runner-up in the Listed Prix Finot, out of the own-sister to Nickname and Nom de D'La, and in foal to Goliath du Berlais. Also catalogued is broodmare Ellen des Mottes (15B), a half-sister to the talented Pamela des Mottes and herself runner-up in the Listed Prix Wild Monarch. She is offered in foal to Goliath du Berlais, alongside her foal by Flintshire (Lot 15C).

Other notable entries include yearling Tarivana, by Cokoriko out of the black-type Ivresse du Berlais, dam of four winners; La Croix de Seguey (Bathyrion), in foal to the exciting Nietzsche Has; and Menorca (69B), out of Shannon Rock's own-sister, also carrying to Nietzsche Has. Black-type Vokalise (76B), from the family of En La Cruz and Voy Por Ustedes, is in foal to Goliath du Berlais and has already produced Bolero, placed in the Prix Finot. The catalogue also features a 2yo gelding by Nirvana du Berlais, from the family of Zainta and Nirvanelo.

45 Consignors at Bois Roussel

No fewer than 45 consignors will be represented at the National Hunt Sale, including Windermere Stud, Roc Let Stud and Guillaume Lassaussaye.

Plenty of lots stand out, including Konstantin Has (41), a brother to Kool Has and Kolina Has by City Light, consigned by Hamel Stud. Haras du Hoguenet will present La Spezia (44), a Group 3 winner offered with her first foal, a filly by Doctor Dino, and back in foal to Masked Marvel, alongside her two-year-old brother Go One Boy (111), by Ectot.

Blue Spirit Bloodstock consigns Bluey (120), a two-year-old filly from the prolific family of N'avoue Jamais, and a sister to the black-type performers Etoile du Ficheaux and Accelerator. Meanwhile, Jean-Marie Callier offers Goldenboy Nolimit (102), a two-year-old gelding by Free Port Lux and a brother to Clotilda, who realised €100,000 at the 2024 renewal.

Inspections will take place from Thursday 18 September at 9am at Auctav's facilities.
